

Adults begin to emerge in mid- to late May and continue into August.

Adults live for two to three weeks. During that time, females lay 65-90 eggs.

The Emerald Ash Borer

Life Cycle

In summer and fall, larvae etch channels under the bark, cutting off the trees' nutrients.

Larvae overwinter in the outer bark.

