11/28/2011	Growhio	$20,000.00	Capitalize on the economic purchasing power of urban communities through strategic marketing, outreach, programming and collaboration.
11/28/2011	Ohio Grocers Foundation	$53,040.00	Develop a food safety training module specific to locally produced specialty crops.
11/28/2011	Center for Innovative Technology (CIFT)	$34,500.00	Produce a plan for the establishment of a moderately sized plant to accumulate, minimally process, store, and distribute specialty crops in Western Ohio.
11/28/2011	Center for Innovative Technology (CIFT)	$35,500.00	Connect Ohio specialty crop growers to Ohio food processing establishments and distributors, thereby enhancing their economic performance.
12/9/2011	The Ohio State University	$20,000.00	This proposal builds a team of nursery producers and supplier to speed early adoption of a new container production system with the potential to significantly reduce production costs.
12/9/2011	The Ohio State University	$87,148.00	This proposal will measure the economic impact of microclover for sod producers.
12/9/2011	The Ohio State University	$60,000.00	This proposal will conduct applied research to significantly increase the production capacity and competitiveness of Ohio's blueberry industry. Evaluation of new cultivars, innovative production techniques, season extension methods, and nursery propagation techniques will be utilized to help fruit growers become more profitable and ultimately help create jobs in Ohio.

12/12/2011	The Ohio Nursery & Landscape Association	$50,000.00	Weed control is essential in nurseries and is the major pest control expense. A complex diversity of species is grown with some species having few, if any labeled herbicides. Chemical companies are struggling to perform the labeling research. New and difficult weeds are also emerging making the need for more effective and economical controls critical. This project could cut weeding costs up to 300%, increase profits and create 1,000 new jobs.
12/12/2011	The Ohio Nursery & Landscape Association	$40,000.00	A year round marketplace connecting Ohio producers of nursery crops with volume wholesale buyers. The marketplace, an online nursery stock locator search engine, will promote and encourage the continued production of Ohio nursery crops as well as the sale and use of Ohio nursery products in and out of state.
12/14/2011	The Ohio State University	$80,935.00	This program aims to prepare growers for produce safety regulations through affordable subsidized program fees and integrated message delivery.
12/14/2011	The Ohio Christmas Tree Growers Association	$15,000.00	Develop an internet video series, DVD and Christmas tree growers manual for this project. These resources and the mentorship program should result in increased tree production and increased gross sales in Ohio.
12/19/2011	Ohio Produce Growers Marketing Association	$33,300.00	This program supports OPGMA's direct food safety education efforts, including a full day of programming at the OPGMA Congress and outreach through printed and online communications.
1/3/2012	Ohio Wine Producers Association	$15,000.00	Provide public education by: 1) using the book The Grape Grow Sweet, to teach children about the science and farm land preservation role of grape growing in our state; 2) to drive visitation to wineries in southern Ohio using a one of a kind Ohio wine trivia board game and regional passport; 3) to use QR code technology to attract smart phone users to wineries
1/3/2012	AceNet	$30,000.00	Will assist specialty crop producers to increase wholesale market access and annual sales/profitability for fresh and processed specialty crops via targeted market channels; restaurants, grocery retailers and educational institutions. Three objectives will be employed: 1) Market Ready, GAP and HACCP training; 2) Regional brand promotions, and #) Improved processing and packaging.
