COLUMBUS, Ohio (Jan. 12, 2007) – Stella Hagemeyer was recognized Wednesday for her outstanding support to the Warren County Fair during ceremonies at the 82nd Ohio Fair Managers Association (OFMA) Annual Convention at the Greater Columbus Convention Center. Former Ohio Agriculture Director Fred L. Dailey presented Hagemeyer with a plaque honoring her work.

“Over the years, Stella has displayed her outstanding support to the Warren County Fair as a leader in her community,” said Dailey. “I am pleased to recognize her for her dedication and involvement in the fair and the community.”

Hagemeyer served the Warren County Fair as racing secretary for 40 years. She has also volunteered as 4-H advisor and was active with the Senior Fairboard during her husband’s 40 years on the board. Hagemeyer remains active in her community as a member and officer of many community and church organizations, including the Warren County Republican chairwoman, vice president of the Garden Club, and district officer for the United Methodist Women. She is also the current secretary/treasurer for the Ohio Colt Racing Association.

Hagemeyer received one of nine OFMA District Awards from Dailey. She represented the Warren County Fair in District 3, which also includes the Butler, Champaign, Clark, Clinton, Greene, Hamilton, Miami, Montgomery, and Preble county fairs.
