

Ohio Local Foods Roundtable

a planning and networking event

10 a.m. - 4 p.m. Thursday, November 12, 2009

Ohio Department of Agriculture 8995 E. Main Street, Reynoldsburg, Ohio

Join the Ohio Department of Agriculture and local food advocates from across Ohio to discuss issues that are current and relevant to Ohio's local food movement.

Registration Form

To register for the Local Foods Roundtable, please remove and complete the bottom portion of this form and mail it by October 30 with a $13 check made payable to the Ohio Department of Agriculture to:

Ohio Department of Agriculture
Amalie Lipstreu
8995 E. Main Street
Reynoldsburg, Ohio 43068

Cost of registration includes two breakout sessions, the roundtable discussion and a local lunch.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

Organization: _____

Ohio Local Foods Roundtable November 12, 2009

Eleven local food policy councils are working to increase access to local foods, increase farm prosperity and retain the benefits of food spending in Ohio.

- 9:15 - 10:00 Registration and Networking
- 10:00 - 10:20 Welcome
- 10:25 - 11:45 Morning Breakout Session
A: Innovative Local Food Distribution
B: Small Scale Local Food Processing
- 12:05 - 1:25 Networking Local Lunch
- 1:30 - 2:45 Afternoon Breakout Session
A: Making the Economic Case for Local Food Systems
B: Building Partnerships in Local Food Policy
- 2:50 - 3:45 Session Three
Roundtable: Food Policy and Local Food Updates from Around the State
- 3:50 - 4:00 Closing Remarks

There are thousands of dollars available for local food infrastructure in Ohio. Are we organized enough to access these resources?

Immediately following the Roundtable, please join us for a reception hosted by Slow Food Columbus from 4 - 5:30 p.m.

For additional information, please contact Amalie Lipstreu at 614-466-6198 or alipstreu@agri.ohio.gov

Shape your Roundtable Experience

Please indicate your choice for the morning and afternoon breakout sessions by checking the box next to the desired session.

Morning Breakout Session

- Innovative Local Food Distribution
- Small Scale Local Food Processing

Afternoon Breakout Session

- Making the Economic Case for Local Food Systems
- Building Partnerships in Local Food Councils

Department of Agriculture

Sustainable Agriculture