RE: Recall announcement (ODA/ODH) 2014-096

Plum Organics Voluntarily Recalls Little Crèmes Organic Rice Milk Snacks Due to Potential Choking Hazard

Plum Organics is voluntarily recalling its Little Crèmes organic rice milk snacks line after it was found that the product has the potential to cause choking. The small, bite-sized snack pieces are made to soften in a child's mouth in less than 20 seconds making them easy to swallow. Some pieces were found to take significantly longer than this, creating a potential choking hazard, particularly for babies and very young children.

The recall affects all Little Crèmes varieties:

- Super Purples (acai, blackberry & purple carrot),
- Super Reds (pomegranate, beet & berry), and
- Super Greens (kale, apple & sweet potato).
