RE: Recall Announcement (ODA/ODH) 2016-84

Molly & Drew Voluntarily Recalls Three Lots of American Original Beer Bread Mix
Because of Possible Health Risk

Molly&drew of Sac City, IA is recalling three lots (L1215A, L1215B, and L1215C) of AMERICAN ORIGINAL BEER BREAD MIX sold in retail because it may be contaminated with E. coli O121 bacteria.

These three lot codes of AMERICAN ORIGINAL BEER BREAD MIX retail product were manufactured by molly&drew and sold at Cracker Barrel Old Country Store® in its retail stores nationwide. Lots of molly&drew's AMERICAN ORIGINAL BEER BREAD MIX purchased from other retail stores or from molly&drew's website are not affected by this recall. No other molly&drew products are affected by this recall.

The affected AMERICAN ORIGINAL BEER BREAD retail product is in a red 19.75oz bag with the UPC number 855290003008 and Item Number: BB100. The specified lot code will be printed along the bottom seal of the pouch and will be accompanied by a BEST BUY DATE of 01/2018.

molly&drew is initiating this recall because we were notified by one of our suppliers that they were conducting a recall of an ingredient used in our mix for the potential presence of E. coli O121.

It is important to note that to date no molly&drew product has been linked to any illness or been shown to have any presence of E. coli. molly&drew is recalling this product out of an abundance of caution and to put consumer safety first.

If you have the affected retail product, do not use it and throw it in the garbage.

If you would like a refund of the retail product purchased at a Cracker Barrel Old Country Store®, you may return the product to a Cracker Barrel Old Country Store® location for a full refund or you may contact molly&drew for a refund or replacement for the recalled product only by sending an email to molly&drew that includes a color photo showing the lot code on the bottom seal of the product, as well as your name and address, to: info@molly-drew.com.

Consumer Contact: Molly & Drew toll-free at 1-888-552-9768 from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Central Standard Time, Monday through Friday.
